CHURCH OFFICE YEAR-END SCHEDULE

The church office will be closed December 26-30, 2016 for Christmas, and also on Monday, January 2, 2017 for the New Year's Day holiday.

Staff will be on-call during the holidays. If you have a need, please call the Church office and leave a detailed message if no one is available to take your call.

FROM THE PASTOR

Dear friends,

On this Christmas week, I find myself thinking of Mary, great with child, packing her belongings for the trip to Bethlehem with Joseph, not knowing when she would give birth or where she would be staying. It unsettles me to think of all that she didn't know as she prepared to head out for the census-taking. The important thing, however, is what she did know and what gave her deep peace – that the angel Gabriel had appeared to her and spoke to her words that she would never have imagined in her wildest dreams. She was favored by God, the angel had said. She would conceive a child and give birth to the Son of God. This would happen because nothing was impossible with God.

“Here I am, the servant of the Lord;”

Mary responded to the angel Gabriel, “let it be with me according to your word.”

In other words, “I trust God.”

I wonder, during this Advent season of waiting and hoping, if we dare to trust what God is doing in our lives and in the world? I wonder if we believe, as Mary did, as the angel promised, that “nothing will be impossible with God.” I wonder if our hearts are ready to say “yes” to God in the life we are called to live – a life of peace, a life of hope, a life of working for welcome, fairness, justice, and equity for all. I wonder if we have the Mary's trust that God, incarnate in Jesus Christ has come to turn the world around and Mary's courage to be an active part in bringing about peace on earth. Mary sings:

My heart shall sing of the day you bring.

Let the fires of your justice burn.

Wipe away all tears,

for the dawn draws near,

and the world is about to turn.[1]

In Christ, God is turning the world around. May we have the courage to follow Jesus and work for the coming of God's Kingdom of peace, hope, love, and joy, even here, even now. May God guide our efforts and keep us humble. May our eyes be set on Christ.

With love this Christmas,

Mindy Douglas

THANK YOUs. . .

Christmas Pageant: Wow!

It was a beautiful setting of the animals surrounding the manger, waiting for the baby Jesus to be born. Many thanks to all the children and youth who participated, and to parents who brought you. If you wore a costume in the pageant, you are invited to wear it again for the Time with Children on Christmas Eve. Then you may leave your costume at the church, or return it after the holidays. Thanks for being worship leaders on Sunday, and for living into the birth narrative of Jesus.

Many thanks to Rod and Barbara Gerwe for hosting the Prime Timers Friday night, for the 12th consecutive year. A crowd of about 60 descended upon their beautiful home to enjoy the food, fellowship, and caroling led by Kathy and Bob Parkins. Special kudos to those who helped with set-up and clean-up for such a large gathering.

Many thanks to other members who hosted groups in their homes this December:

On December 7th, Marilyn Hedgpeth hosted the church staff at her home for brunch;

On December 10th, Carlo and Emily Diy hosted the Scratch Group in their home for brunch and Melinda Ruley and Stewart Fisher hosted First Friends in the home for supper.

CONGRATULATIONS

e . . to Carol Wills whose poem "What I Call Home" was published in the winter issue of "Snapdragon: a Journal of Art and Healing." We can look forward to reading Carol's poetry in a future issue of this newsletter.

Stewardship Season

"For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also."—Luke 12:34

As of December 20, we have received 162 pledges, totaling $714,283 which represents 78.22% of our goal.

If you have not yet had the opportunity to turn in your pledge card, please do so as soon as you are able so that we can finalize our mission spending for 2017. Every pledge counts.

Lost your pledge card? No worries! You can pledge online at our website <http://firstpres-durham.org/stewardship-pledge/>, call Valerie McMillian at the church to have one mailed to you (919-682-5511), or email Tom Bloom with your pledge information (t.bloom@firstpres-durham.org).

YEAR-END GIVING

Please remember that the church must receive your charitable contributions by the end of the day (4:30 p.m.) on Friday December 30, 2016. You may also put your offering (pledge) in the collection plate on Sunday, December 25. Gifts must be postmarked by December 31, 2016, if mailed, to be deductible on your 2016 taxes.

If you wish to make a donation through a gift of stock, please notify Tom Bloom, Business Administrator (t.bloom@firstpres-durham.org) as soon as possible.

Members aged 70½+ who own an IRA may be able to make a qualified charitable distribution directly to First Presbyterian from your IRA and have that gift satisfy any required minimum distribution for this year. Please contact your IRA administrator ASAP if you wish to consider this giving option for tax year 2016 (the gift must be delivered directly to FPC by the IRA plan administrator, postmarked on or before December 31, 2016). Tom Bloom, Business Administrator, can provide information needed by the plan administrator.

A CALL FOR NOMINATIONS

It is time to nominate persons to serve as ruling elders and deacons for the Class of 2020. The form for submitting nominations is available at the church and also by clicking the link below. You may also use this same form to nominate persons to serve in the at-large positions on the Nominating Committee.

FLOWER MINISTRY

The Flower Reservation Calendar for donating sanctuary flowers in 2017 is now posted near the door to the volunteer's office in the foyer. This ministry enhances the beauty of the sanctuary, provides an opportunity to honor or remember important people in our lives, and brings love and joy from the congregation to members unable to attend the worship service. Donations can be made by an individual, a family, or jointly by multiple individuals or families. An information sheet is available beside the calendar.

With thanks for your continuing support of this important ministry.
