Mindy Douglas

Call to Prayer

Prayer of Confession (in unison)

We don't believe it. We don't believe you, O God of splendor, strength, and majesty. Deep down, we don't really believe that this Jesus is actually you, or just like you. So, we think we can get away with the splendor of the latest technology. Or the strength of our own wits. Or the majesty of our politics. We are always trusting in lesser gods, having convinced ourselves that you're not really paying attention. Forgive us for such idolatry and faithlessness. Draw us closer to you, so that we cannot disbelieve.

*Welcome new-born lambs, who in pastures dwell; where caring shepherds bring them gently to the well;

Retirement Celebration for Marilyn Hedgpeth

Following worship, members and friends who have a reservation for lunch will gather in Watts-Hill Hall. After the meal, join us in the sanctuary where there will be a short program to thank Marilyn for her service.

First Presbyterian Church welcomes all who worship here. We honor and celebrate the human diversity and unity that God gives us in Christ. We welcome individuals of every age, race, nationality, gender, ability, sexual orientation, and economic circumstance to participate fully in the life of the church. So that we may better know each other, please sign the Ritual of Friendship pad, pass it along the center pew across to the shorter side pew, and then return it to the starting point, noting the names of those sitting near you. On Sunday, January 5, we welcomed 26 visitors to our worship service.

Special thanks to Gordon Campbell for serving as organist today while Kathy Parkins is away visiting family, and to Brennetta Simpson (director) and Suzanne Crabtree (accompanist) for their work with the Alleluia Children's Choir.

The flowers in the sanctuary are given to the glory of God by Alice Raney in loving memory of her mother, Ethel Lipscomb Girvin.

Nursery care for infants to 6 years of age is provided during worship on the second floor of the Education Building. After the sermon is delivered, children ages 3 to 6 join worship for "A Time with the Children." Childcare for infants – 2 years continues in the nursery. Following "A Time with the Children," the children may return to the nursery or join their parents and siblings in the pew. There is a changing table in the narthex, located to the left as you exit the rear of the sanctuary.

Worship bags and activity bulletins are available in the foyer for children. Books are on the pews in the narthex for younger children to read and enjoy should they need a break from the service.

Portions of today's worship texts were reprinted from With One Voice.

Seeking Justice on Uneven Ground

Exhibit dates: January 3 - February 16, 2020

Please come to Watts-Hill Hall (dates below) and explore faith and the history of racism and housing through the Uneven Ground exhibit. Originally commissioned for the 150th anniversary of Durham as a city, the exhibit is a tool for reflection, learning, and dialogue.

Special events held at First Presbyterian Church:

January 14: Gentrification: the New Segregation? 6-7:30 p.m.; gallery viewing, panel and community discussion on past and current housing issues in Durham and how faith communities have played a role in the segregation, integration, and development of the Durham community.

January 19: Opening Reception at 12:15 p.m.; gallery viewing, refreshments, and a presentation by Bull City 150.

February 4: Sharing, Naming, and Healing at 6 p.m.; an open house closed by a vigil of Durham residents sharing their own stories of their housing experiences in Durham, community responses, and prayers of lament and hope for communal healing and justice.

Description: In recognition of the image of God in us all, the dignity and sacredness of all life and Christ's command to love one's neighbor as oneself, Seeking Justice on Uneven Ground brings together the history of racism and housing segregation in Durham with the faith-based affordable housing justice work of Duke Chapel and First Presbyterian Church. You are invited to reflect on our city's history, our churches' histories, our faith perspectives, and what affects all of us: housing and racism. First Presbyterian Church has a rich history of housing work in Durham, from collaborating closely with Urban Ministries of Durham, Habitat for Humanity and Housing for New Hope, to being involved in Durham CAN's efforts. Duke University has been involved in land banking, loan trusts, and advocacy for over twenty years. We invite you to delve deeply, prayerfully, and vocally through discussions, panels, vigils, and receptions alongside your neighbors.

Assistance to Puerto Rico Residents

Earthquakes have been rolling through Puerto Rico since December 28th, the largest of which was a 6.4 magnitude in the early hours of January 7th. As the island is still in the process of recovery from Hurricane Maria and many of its residents still are experiencing post-traumatic effects, the earthquakes will likely intensify the effects on many. Power is out on most of the island and initial estimates put damage from the earthquakes at more than $3.1 billion. In Guanica alone, at least 148 homes have been impacted, from structural damage to complete collapse.

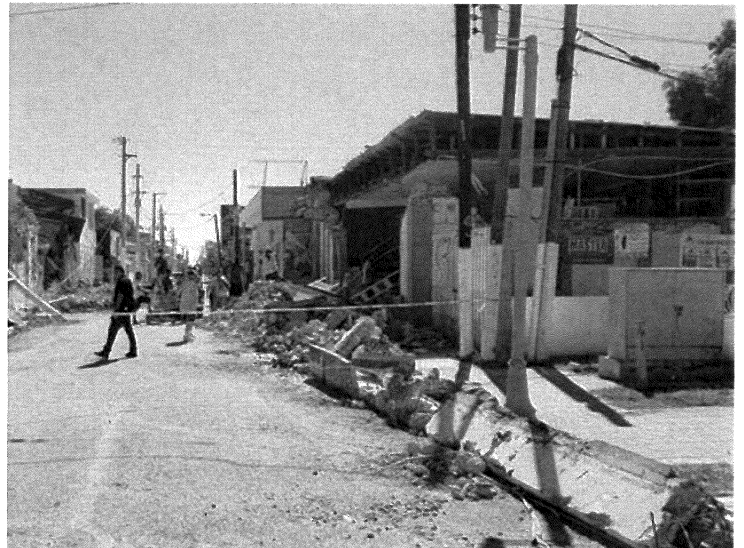

Presbyterian Disaster Assistance (PDA) is on the ground assessing the situation and is processing an initial grant request. Please join PDA by supporting this response with gifts online to:

<https://pma.pcusa.org/donate/make-a-gift/gift-info/DR000015/> or give by phone: 800-872-3283. To send a check, please make payable to Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) and designate where you want your gift to go (Puerto Rico) on the memo line and mail to:

375 Shall We Gather at the River

1 Shall we gath-er at the riv-er, where bright an-gel feet have trod,
2 On the mar-gin of the riv-er, wash-ing up its sil-ver spray,
3 Ere we reach the shin-ing riv-er, lay we ev-ery bur-den down;
4 Soon we'll reach the shin-ing riv-er; soon our pil-grim-age will cease;

with its crys-tal tide for-ev-er flow-ing by the throne of God?
we will walk and wor-ship ev-er, all the hap-py gold-en day.
grace our spir-its will de-liv-er, and pro-vide a robe and crown.
soon our hap-py hearts will quiv-er with the mel-o-dy of peace.

Refrain

Yes, we'll gath-er at the riv-er, the beau-ti-ful, the beau-ti-ful riv-er;

gath-er with the saints at the riv-er that flows by the throne of God.
